

A Diwali hamper at Jus' Trufs

COCOA DREAMS

A glass platter of chocolates

A new festive collection of chocolates has been introduced by Jus' Trufs in Bangalore

What: Jus' Trufs (short for Just Truffles) created by master chocolatier Chenddyna Schae and her team in Bangalore introduces a new range of festive chocolates, packed in various gifting options, including platters filled with assorted nuts etc.

Where: Jus' Trufs, 132 Aditi, 4th cross, 2nd C Main, Talacauvery Layout, Amruthalli, Bangalore 560092. Contact: 09844016984, www.justrufs.com

What we saw: Chenddyna Schae has been making chocolates for more than a decade, having learnt the craft in Belgium, and producing melt-in-your-mouth truffles. In the festive collection, we saw her signature range, with old favourites like Pure Truffle, Coffee Truffle, Crunchy Almond Logs, Butterscotch Bars, presented in the bitter sweet couverture that they are known for. She has introduced four new flavours this season—Intense Espresso for the coffee addict, Strawberry Crush for the child in you, Orange Crush for a blast of orange and Cocoa Dreams, a seductive flavour for those young at heart. Jus' Trufs has also introduced Slim New Thins, with incredible fillings of espresso and mint inside. There's the special range of Belgian Pralines, offering you a variety of Belgian dark and milk couvertures, the flavours include Rocher Lait and Rocher Noir. Please also check the sinfully delicious Marzipan Amande and the Cappuchino Ganache.

What we loved: The entire visual of the way the chocolate was created, dressed up in trendy gold and silver boxes, and of course the delicious taste of the truffles.

Price points: All the above chocolates are available in various sizes and are priced at Rs 1,200 per kilo; the New Thins are priced at Rs 7.50 each. An assorted box of nine truffles would cost you Rs 500, while a box of 12 would be Rs 600. ||
