

Choco break

TEMPTING A new range for the festive season

Jus'Trufs, has created a range of luxury pralines using a range of ingredients from Belgium. The scientific and professional approach to creating chocolates adds to the taste and flavour of the chocolates.

The chocolate taste superb and are produced under stringent quality control and hygiene standards.

The company has also introduced unique gift packs and hampers, a classic box customised with your company logo, or your logo or photograph in colour on chocolate.

Chenddyna Schae, the chocolatier has been travelling all over Europe and Australia to pick up exclusive recipes

The flavours that were developed by the company, following a great deal of research includes luxury pralines that are priced at Rs. 500 for a box of 12 chocolates. The cost is inclusive of gift packing in an elegant blue or silver box. The pack contains the rocher noir, comprising hazelnut ganache, sliver of almonds coated with smooth dark chocolate, rocher lait, containing slivered almonds, coated with smooth milk chocolate and Jus'Trufs truffle, a proprietary truffle, whipped to perfection, coated with dark chocolate.

For more details, email info@justrufs.com or visit www.justrufs.com.